To the Faculty Member

This form is an integral part of the above student's application to study abroad through SAF, a non-profit organization that offers fully integrated study abroad opportunities for university students.

To help ensure favorable consideration of this student's application to one of our host universities abroad, we ask that you complete both sides of this form and forward it directly to the student for submission.

Admission to our programs is competitive and selective. SAF programs operate on a rolling-admission policy, which means some programs may close before the published application deadline. We would appreciate your completing this form in English.

We seek your evaluation of the student's academic ability as well as his or her social maturity and emotional strengths in terms of undertaking a period of study abroad. We are particularly interested in your assessment of the student's academic motivation and any special attributes relevant to foreign study. Your noting any weakness that may impede the student's success abroad also would be of great help to us.

We appreciate your taking time to assist this student and hope that you will contact our office if you have any questions about this student's application or about any of our study abroad programs, services, or overseas partners.
